Councillors Tangle With Stop Signs

Oak Bay Council Split on Whether Arterial Highway
Rule Being Observed

Inauguration of arterial highways in the city and the resultant placing of stop signs at side streets has affected the adjacent municipalities, and the Oak Bay Council last night found itself involved in a discussion as to whether it should follow the lead of the city.

Councillor C. F. L. Money raised the matter, making a motion that stop signs should be placed on streets leading off Oak Bay Avenue.

Councillor W. H. Mearns was not so sure this was the right thing to do. The rule was not being looked after and enforced in the city, and at present seemed liable to be dangerous.

"Well, I don't know," retorted Councillor Money, "I was pulled up by a policeman myself and told to disengage my clutch."

ACCIDENTS MIGHT HAPPEN

Councillor Paterson thought it should be done on Oak Bay Avenue as people coming out from the city would expect it, and accidents might happen were it not done.

Councillor Crease thought it was only half-heartedly enforced in the city, and if taken up in Oak Bay would be treated in the same way.

Councillor T. J. Goodlake: "It is worse than useless in the city. What about a sign at the junction of Oak Bay Avenue and Poul Bay Road, stating the arterial highway stops there?"

Councillor Money: "I can't agree with the previous speakers. I think the public are trying to help in the working of the rule. I have seen many motorists coming to a stop at the intersections. I think Oak Bay should take it up and set an example to the city by seeing that it is enforced."

NEAR COLLISION

Councillor Mearns was still against it. He had nearly been in collision at Fernwood Road as the result of another driver not stopping when he should have done.

Councillor Paterson: "I had a similar experience, but some of them are stopping. They will learn."

Councillor Ashe also thought the rule was being observed.

Councillor Goodlake: "It is careful drivers like Captain Money and myself who observe it. The road-hogs don't."

Councillor Mearns: "We are glad, I'm sure, to learn Councillor Goodlake is a careful driver."

The matter will be taken up by the committee of the whole.

SCOTTISH BAND TO PLAY SUNDAY

Bandmaster Miller Announces Official Programmes of High Merit

The band concert of the Canadian Scottish Regiment in Beacon Hill Park Sunday afternoon is under the direction of Bandmaster Miller. Bandmaster Miller has come to the conclusion that the "kilts" must be an attractive uniform, especially to tourists, as he was repeatedly asked last Sunday if it would be possible to take a picture of the band, three parties remaining behind to snap the bandmen while they were leaving the park.

The concert is always most favorably received. Every number on the programme has merited the request for a repeat, and although none of the same numbers find a place in this Sunday's programme, the bandmaster wishes to announce that Bandmaster Jones will render another piccolo solo at a later concert, and that "Cavalry Charge," which was received so enthusiastically, shall be repeated at a future date.

The programme selected for Sunday is of outstanding merit. It is neatly arranged to suit all tastes. The opening number in a march "With Sword and Lance," by Starke, that has never lost its charm since it won the first prize in London, England, in the year 1900. It will be followed by selections from the comic opera, "Robin Hood," by De Koven. A beautiful waltz, "Moonlight on the Hudson" is the third number, followed by a descriptive and romantic fantasia, "A Summer Evening in the Alps," one of the modern arrangements by Kling. The overture, "Fest," by Leutner, ends the first half of the programme.

The second half is opened by a grand selection from the opera of Verdi, arranged by Godfrey, "Le Secret," by Gaultier, and "Forget-me-not," by Macbeth, are the "a" and "b" numbers of a petite suite followed by Kotelbey's "In a Persian Market," a great favorite among music lovers. "In South America," an intermezzo by Misyud, precedes the selection, "Songs of Ireland," arranged by Douglas, which contains some old Irish airs such as "Come Back to Erin," "The Wearin' of the Green" and others, which brings the programme to a close.

TOLMIE VISITS FRASER VALLEY

Conservative Leader Addresses Meetings in New Westminster

New Westminster, July 13.—Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative leader, addressed three election meetings in the Fraser Valley yesterday. First he spoke at Chilliwack. Then he motored to New Westminster, where he spoke in support of Dr. A. M. Sanford, Conservative candidate. Leaving here he went to Cloverdale, where he addressed a meeting in the interests of J. W. Berry, Conservative candidate in Delta.

He dealt with agriculture and several other topics. He said he believed that while much attention had been given to production in British Columbia, more ought to be done in the providing of markets for the farmers.

"I HAVE NO GAS ON MY STOMACH SINCE USING HUSKY," SAYS THIS HAPPY WOMAN

She Suffered Almost Beyond Endurance From Indigestion for Eight Years; Kidneys Were Weak and Backache and Rheumatic Pains Afflicted Her

"As I had suffered almost beyond endurance from indigestion, gas on my stomach and backache, I was overcome with joy when Husky relieved me," said Mrs. Agnes Belton, 77 Hook Avenue, Toronto, as she spoke with enthusiasm of the great results she has obtained from using "Husky," the medicine of herbs, roots and barks.

"Husky has been such a benefactor to me," said Mrs. Belton, "that I want to spread the good news about this medicine to suffering humanity everywhere. I was so full of gas and sourness after meals that I was just miserable and didn't want to eat as food never tasted good. My kidneys went bad on me and my back was aching all the time. Rheumatic pains and neuritis were shooting through my arms, shoulders and body, and I had an aching, tired feeling all over."

"I had tried so many medicines without getting any help that I had about given up the idea of ever trying anything else. Then I saw what Husky was actually doing for people I know, and so I began using it. Now I can say thanks to this medicine for taking the gas from my stomach and giving me good digestion and a big appetite. As I continued the treatment my kidneys stopped paining and the aching feeling left my back. My blood seems pure and strong as I no longer have the rheumatic pains or neuritis, and I feel invigorated and strong. I don't know what I would have done if it hadn't been for Husky."

Mrs. Belton, who is superintendent of one of the Toronto city buildings, is well known to hundreds in that city. She has already helped a number of people regain health by advising them to use "Husky" and she says that she would like to tell everyone about it.

"Husky" has been so thoroughly tested, and it has done such wonderful work for everyone who has tried it that the MacFarlane Drug Co. highly recommends it to people of Victoria. "Husky" can be obtained at the MacFarlane Drug Co. and at other good drug stores everywhere.

"CONSTIPATION HAS DISAPPEARED SINCE I STARTED HUSKY," SAYS C.P.R. MAN

Feels Fine and Well Now; Was Literally Broken Down in Health; Food Pained Him, He Felt Weak and Was Always Tired

"There never was anything that helped my constipation and indigestion until I started using Husky recently," said Percy Greenwood, pattern maker for the Canadian Pacific Railway, when he came in from the C.P.R. shops the other day to get another bottle of this great medicine.

Mr. Greenwood says many of the men at the shops are taking Husky since they have seen what it has done for him. "About three years ago I just gave out and broke down I felt so bad," he said, "and I never have been able to get to feeling right again. I was always constipated, and my stomach was so upset and tender that as soon as I put food into it a gas would form and swell me up. I was bloated, weak and dizzy."

"My kidneys were weak, and I felt aching and tired, and when I went to work I felt like I was too weak to go on. I began to take different kinds of medicines, but nothing ever had an effect until I got a bottle of Husky. Since I've been using this wonderful medicine I feel better than I have in months as the constipation is gone and my stomach just takes my food and digests it with no gas forming at all. I really feel like a new man, and have energy left when the day is done."

their bodies have not had enough exercise to use it. I tell you it is no wonder the stomachs of the Canadian people have steadily grown weaker and weaker. "In Canada to-day there are hundreds of thousands who do not know what is the matter with them. Some say insomnia, toxemia; others malnutrition, colitis. Most of them simply say, 'I am just tired-out all the time,' or 'I can't eat a bite of food without feeling puffed up from it.'"

"I have a medicine here which positively will do nothing but rid the stomach of chronic acidity, sweeten and soothe the stomach and bowels, so that the food you eat is properly digested, and the waste carried off promptly. With it I have proved to thousands that few people can be sick with a stomach free from acidity. I am doing the same thing here, and will do it wherever I go."

You will find "Husky" sold and highly recommended at the MacFarlane Drug Co., and at other good drug stores everywhere.

CHRONIC ACIDITY RUINS DIGESTION, THINS THE BLOOD

A. G. Payne, the wizard with herbs, roots and barks who has created such a sensation wherever he has introduced his medicine, called Husky, to prove his theory about the human stomach, is doing the same thing here.

Payne claims that ninety per cent of the bad health so general nowadays is caused by an abnormal condition in the stomach—chronic acidity, and is proving it by the results people get from his medicine. To quote his own words, "Most of the common complaints we hear so much in this generation are caused by abnormal stomach conditions brought on by chronic acidity. In earlier days, when the human race was closer to nature, and men and women worked out-of-doors all day, the tired, droopy, half-sick people that are now so common, did not exist. There was sickness, but very little compared to now. There was none of this constant half-sick condition with which so many are afflicted."

"In the animal, or in any of the primitive, uncivilized tribes, you see no anemia, debility or nerve exhaustion. They have to work hard for a living. They don't know any better and that is where ignorance is bliss, sure enough. They are not shut up all day in factories, or living a life of ease, and they do not stuff themselves with food when never been before. The plateau is more than 20,000 square miles in area. A trail was cut this year by the Forestry Department, and hereafter sheep will be run there regularly for Summer pasture. The range is at an altitude of 5,000 feet, and is too high for coyotes to bother the sheep. There are no cougars that high up, and the only enemies the sheep have are grizzly bears. These only kill when hungry, and if their depredations are extensive hunters will soon thin their ranks.

In driving the first sheep up there was some loss through snowbrush, which is a poison plant. In later drives the area where this poison brush is was not pastured and no sheep were lost.

The sheep are expected to stay on the range until driven down by snow, probably in October.

If the plan is successful it is likely many more sheep will be pastured there in succeeding years, but the men who are pioneering are not worrying, as there is room for all on that vast range.

SHEEP PASTURE ON BIG PLATEAU

AUTO DEATHS IN TERMINAL CITY

Young Woman of Boston Bar, B.C., Loses Life as Result of Tire Blow-out

Vancouver, July 13.—A fight against a telephone post on Kingsway near Division Avenue, south of Vancouver, when the automobile in which she was a passenger careened across the highway at 1:50 o'clock this morning. Miss Jean Ferguson of Boston Bar, B.C., received injuries which caused her death in the Vancouver General hospital at 9:45 a.m.

Miss Ferguson suffered a fracture of the skull and other injuries to her head and shoulders.

Leonard Skippen, driver of the car, was arrested by South Vancouver police immediately after the accident on a charge of driving to the common danger.

TIRE BLEW OUT
The automobile was going toward New Westminster when one of the front tires blew out. The car swerved across the pavement and struck the telephone post with considerable force. Miss Ferguson, sitting on the right-hand side of the automobile, suffered the full force of the impact.

After being booked at South Vancouver police headquarters, Mr. Skippen was released on $100 bail.

FOUR KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

Croydon, Eng., July 13.—Two women and two men were burned to death in the crash of an aeroplane at Purley today. One of the men, A. Hall, aeronautical inspector of the Croydon aerodrome, was instantly killed.

The pilot was badly injured and sent to a hospital, while another passenger escaped with slight hurts.

The plane was seen to dive and then recover slightly. It dived again and crashed in flames. Desperate efforts were made to get the victims free, but the flames prevented this.

The plane, which formerly had been used to carry baggage between London and Continental Europe, had recently been reconditioned.

ROBBERS HUNTED IN VANCOUVER

Vancouver, July 13.—While scores of persons passed by unaware of what was going on, armed bandits last night held up J. C. O'Brien of 437 Elliott Street, Seattle, at Gore Avenue and Hastings Street in this city and robbed him of $2,700, according to his report to the police.

O'Brien said he was walking on Hastings Street at 11 p.m. when a small closed car drove up to the curb beside him. One man jumped out while another remained at the steering wheel with the engine running.

DEATH THREAT MADE
The man on foot covered him with a revolver, O'Brien said, and quietly cautioned him: "Make no noise or I'll bump you off."

STRUCK ON HEAD
The bandit then dealt him a blow on the side of the head, searched his pockets and seized his wallet and the two robbers escaped in the automobile.

Police say there was considerable traffic on Hastings Street at the time of the reported robbery and scores of persons must have passed as it was being committed.

Seattle, July 13.—Neither the Seattle city directory nor the telephone book lists a John C. O'Brien at 437 Elliott Street, and neighbors said the man was probably a transient as they did not know him.

VESSEL RUNS AGROUND WITH PLEASURE PARTY ABOARD NEAR WRANGELL NARROWS

BUILT IN 1918
Built by W. Hamilton & Company of Glasgow, Scotland, in 1918, the Oaxaca has a registered tonnage of 1,483 tons. She is 234 feet long, has a width of thirty-five feet and a depth of seventeen feet. She is registered in Mazatlan, Mexico.

WEALTHY OWNER
The Oaxaca, formerly a rum runner, is owned and sailed by G. Allen Hancock, Los Angeles millionaire tomato king, who was the financial backer of the Southern Cross flight to Australia a short time ago. Several prominent and wealthy Los Angeles and San Francisco residents were reported to be among the fifteen or more passengers aboard. The crew numbers thirty-five.

VESSEL CALLED HERE
The Oaxaca left San Francisco on June 25 for the cruise in Arctic waters and called in at Victoria on her way to Vancouver from which port she sailed for the North on July 2 on a pleasure trip. The vessel was brought to Los Angeles a short time ago by Captain Harry Lyons, navigator on the flight last June of the Southern Cross from Oakland, California, to Australia. Mr. Hancock, who is now on the yacht, obtained the ship from Lyons. It was through this deal largely that the friendship between Mr. Lyons and Mr. Hancock grew that resulted in the millionaire tomato king backing the Southern Cross flight.

SAANICH ELECTORS TO VOTE ON BUS TO-MORROW

RIGID CONTROL
The by-law to be approved by the electors authorizes granting J. S. H. Mason a twenty-year franchise to operate passenger buses in Saanich, the whole municipality to be served with new and modern conveyances. Rates, routes and schedules are to be under the control of the Municipal Council, and in the event of an unsatisfactory service the municipality may step in and operate the equipment. The franchise up to another organization can be induced to take over the service.

In view of the fact that large attendances were expected at the meeting to be held this evening and that a big vote will be recorded to-morrow.

GIVE SUPPORT TO BUS BY-LAW

The Victoria Real Estate Board to-day went on record as approving the Saanich bus by-law upon which the ratepayers of the municipality will vote on Saturday.

"Good transportation and good roads in any community are the foundations of improvement," said Herbert Brown, making the motion. Although Joseph Bridgman, who was in charge of the "snap" decision, he said he was favorably disposed towards the by-law itself.

The feeling of the board was expressed by a unanimous vote in favor of the motion.

RESCUERS HOPE TO FIND SIX MEN OF DIRIGIBLE PARTY

CENTRE OF WORLD INTEREST
For more than a month the eyes of the world had been centred upon the little party on the ice off Foy Island.

Day after day the Italian operator kept in touch with civilization and directed the rescue operations by means of wireless. It was he who first guided planes to the camping place and kept the world informed of the party's position until the Krasin could pound its way through the ice and reach the men.

OTHER GROUP PLACED
General Umberto Nobile, now aboard the base steamer City of Milan, at King's Bay, has sent a message to the relief ship Krasin stating the group referred to as the Alessandro party was not far from the present location of the Krasin.

Latest reports received in Moscow indicated the men were at a point 50.45 north latitude and 30.31 east longitude. This would place them northeast of Foy Island, near which the Vigliani group was rescued.

With the reports, which were not confirmed, came a revival in Moscow of belief that Capt. Roald Amundsen, the missing Norwegian explorer, was likely to have joined that group in his flight from Norway to rescue the stranded men.

This theory was first advanced by Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, noted explorer.

A dispatch from Moscow last night, reporting the rescue of the five men on the ice by the icebreaker Krasin said:

"The Krasin reported that as she passed the scene of the Italia disaster she saw a number of men signaling and she replied that she would pick them up on her return from the camp of the Vigliani group."

"Professor Samoilovich, in command of the Soviet rescue expedition, reported his belief that the men who had signaled to them were Alpine chamois who had been sent in search of Nobile's men. There is the possibility they belong to the missing sledge party of Captain Sora."

THANKS FROM ITALY
Rome, July 13.—Premier Mussolini to-day sent his message to Professor Samoilovich chief of the Russian expedition aboard the icebreaker Krasin, which rescued seven survivors of the lost North Pole dirigible Italia:

"You have accomplished a task which will remain historic among the enterprises of the Arctic and among the gestures of human generosity. I thank you in the name of the Italians and I beg you to thank all your colleagues in the rescue."

STORY OF HALT ON ISLAND ROAD FLATLY DENIED

shortly by grading operations, now proceeding further east. Slashing has proceeded to the western, or Port Renfrew side of China Creek already.

The slashing operations now under way have revealed the good judgment of Public Works Department engineers, who relocated the old road survey and established the present route. By keeping the road on the bench land above the seashore they have avoided the wide ravines which, under old surveys, would have involved expensive and difficult work.

A gasoline shovel is now being used in removing some of the larger clay and earth bluffs along the stretch of road already graded, and rapid progress is being made. As a result of this work, all curves on the new highway will be broad and arranged in an alignment which will reduce the danger of collision to a minimum.

THROUGH VIRGIN FOREST
The road section now under construction runs through an area of virgin timber of great beauty. While the highway nearer Jordan River traverses a logged-off area, this contains a thirty-second growth of evergreens, which are growing rapidly and in a few years will clothe the whole district.

At other points the Government plans to reserve stretches of virgin timber so that the beauty of the road may not be ruined by logging operations. Investigations to this end have been under way for some time.

CITY LAND DEAL IS OFF

celved for distribution to the syndicate and to the city on a pro rata basis.

NO REDUCTION
In laying the request of the syndicate for better terms before members of the Land Committee to-day Mayor Pandey indicated his view that the city should not consider a reduction in the terms of the original option. The City had already refused to give an exclusive agency for its lands to local realtors, and could not consider such a proposal from an outside source, he said.

On the other hand, stated His Worship, land values in Victoria were stiffening, and he was of the belief that if any revision were to be made in the price it should be in an upward direction.

The experience of the City Lands Department in the last few years had shown rising values, with better prices being obtained and a greater volume of land being sold.

The city now had a revenue of over $100,000 a year from the sale of reversioned lands, and would be unwise to interfere with that arrangement, unless for some plan that gave an assurance of better prices and terms than it could secure in the present arrangement of over-the-counter sales, he said.

There was little likelihood that the city would entertain the new proposals for a moment, the mayor concluded.

THE TRANSPORTATION BYLAW

TOMORROW SAANICH RATEPAYERS will vote on the transportation bylaw about which there has been considerable discussion in the correspondence columns of the press and elsewhere. This is a matter which, of course, most intimately concerns the taxpayers of the adjoining municipality, but Victoria's interests are so much bound up with those of Saanich that the fate of the bylaw will be followed here with the closest attention. Certainly there is no problem more common to the two communities than that of transportation, since there is no factor more vital to the development of both than adequate facilities under that head. For that reason, The Times feels that it cannot be fairly charged with meddling in the affairs of Saanich in urging the ratepayers of that municipality to turn out in force and vote on the issue which will be before them tomorrow. We take it for granted that they have studied the question fully, because it affects every one of them. The experience of Victoria in regard to measures which have been submitted to the ratepayers in this way has been marked by a great deal of apathy on the part of those entitled to vote, usually scarcely more than one-third of the taxpayers on the roll availing themselves of their franchise privileges. We hope this will not be the experience of Saanich tomorrow. Every ratepayer of that municipality who is physically able to do so, should go to the polls.

EDUCATION AND HEALTH

IT WOULD BE DIFFICULT TO FIND AN audience of either Liberals or Conservatives that would agree with everything their respective leaders said; but it may be safely assumed that if Premier MacLean were to discuss his Government's educational policy with an audience of British Columbia members of the teaching profession, he would find himself in an atmosphere as near perfection in friendliness as he could wish.

The reason for this is not difficult to understand. As a former teacher himself, fully conversant with the trials and tribulations associated with that particularly exacting calling, he is suitably equipped to deal with educational problems from the official departmental standpoint. But when the present Government came into office in 1916 the educational needs of the Province had not been considered of sufficient importance to warrant the creation of a portfolio which would assure for them the attention to which they were entitled. His association with this subsidiary branch of the public service, as it then was—while Provincial Secretary, led Dr. MacLean to recommend a thorough reorganization of the educational business of the Government. This early in 1920 the Department was elevated to the status which its importance demanded, and the present Premier added the duties of Minister of Education to those of the more routine character of Provincial Secretary. At no time since has there been the slightest suggestion that he should be relieved of those duties, the efficient manner in which he has discharged them—ably assisted by Dr. S. J. Willis—winning for him warm praise from the public at large. He still retains the portfolio.

It will be recalled that at Dr. MacLean's suggestion the Putnam and Weir Commission was engaged to make a complete survey of the Province's educational system. The object of that inquiry was a desire to find out what improvements could be made in a general sense and what changes could be introduced which would be of the widest benefit. Perhaps one of the most important recommendations which the commission's report contained was that a Junior High School should be established. This policy has been followed, with the result that it now is possible to direct with more certainty of success the studies of entrants from the lower grades to the High School. As circumstances warrant no doubt other recommendations will be adopted. But it should be remembered that a growing Province such as this, with conditions of such a varying character, can not afford to hurry in the matter of educational innovations. In following a cautious course, studying the effect of a change here or a change there, Dr. MacLean has obtained the very liberal co-operation of the whole of the teaching profession, while results in the schools bear witness to the general efficiency of the system.

If Dr. MacLean was cast for the proper role in the matter of education, moreover, he also was properly cast when his duties of Provincial Secretary were designed to include his presidency of the Provincial Board of Health. As a professional man the present Premier is in the double-barrelled class. From the classroom he went to the medical college and became a successful physician and surgeon.

Here lies the explanation of the great strides British Columbia has made in the realm of public health. Under Dr. MacLean's administration of this branch of the public service the Government took over the sanatorium at Tranquille and increased the capacity of the Province to fight tuberculosis. He is who established the system of traveling health officers, with special regard to the early detection of tuberculosis by consultation with local medical men. Under his direction a large amount of literature of an educational nature has been distributed throughout the Province. As a result of this campaign the general public, particularly in the more remote regions, has been able to adopt preventive measures and so reduce the ravages of many forms of disease. The institution at Tranquille, of course, is known all over Canada, and it now is regarded as one of the finest establishments of its kind on this continent. Under Dr. MacLean's regime its equipment has been brought thoroughly up-to-date and the accommodation has been steadily increased.

British Columbia therefore is fortunate in having as its Premier one who has made a study of the two most vital questions which concern the people—education and health. His knowledge of both explains why our educational system is second to none, and why the more spectacular business of government has not been permitted to exclude a proper measure of regard for the well-being of the people from the point of view of health. Indeed, Dr. MacLean has unusual qualifications for the tasks which he has discharged so ably.

THE LATE MRS. BOWSER

THE TIMES CONVEYS ITS SINCERE condolences to Mr. W. J. Bowser in the irreparable loss which he has sustained in the passing of Mrs. Bowser. After a lingering illness which she endured with quiet resignation the end came peacefully early yesterday morning. The late Mrs. Bowser and the former Premier of British Columbia had known one another since their childhood in New Brunswick, and for more than thirty years their married life had been one of sweet companionship. Although Mrs. Bowser took a very keen interest in public affairs and all good works, not even the active life of her devoted husband could induce her to take the more prominent role to which her wide knowledge and her intimate association with political events entitled her. But at all times her husband drew his inspiration from her counsel and support. Because of their real devotion to one another, the comradeship of a lifetime, the blow which Mr. Bowser has sustained will be all the more difficult to bear. In the gloom which now enshrouds him, however, he may derive some consolation from the fact that the sincere sympathy of his friends, and they are legion in British Columbia, is going out to him.

OLD AGE PENSIONS

HERE IS A CHOICE EXTRACT FROM one of the opposition pamphlets in regard to old age pensions and the party's attitude towards this beneficent legislation:

Conservatism maintains that such pensions should be a Federal obligation, so that every Canadian qualifying for a pension might obtain it, irrespective of provincial residence qualifications. Failing such a Federal plan, the present arrangement has Conservative approval in this province, but Conservative legislation would be reluctant to their trust did they not direct attention to defects and inequities in the legislation now obtaining, and seek to correct such defects as they disclose themselves and so improve the pension measure that it may more adequately serve its true intent.

Of course the old age pension measure will be improved as time goes on. After twenty years of experience Great Britain still finds it necessary to amend its old age pension law. But if the Opposition Party in British Columbia could have had its way, the 2,800 or more old people who already are enjoying the benefit which the Act in its present form confers upon them still would be waiting.

It is difficult, of course, for Dr. Tolmie and his supporters to discuss old age pensions for the reason that the policy of their party is one of delay—a course in this instance which might have postponed action for years. The electorate remembers, by the way, that the Conservative majority in the Senate threw out the bill in 1926.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

INTERNATIONAL FINANCE

The London Referee

There will soon be no one in control of credit who is not also an international financier. Are international financiers desirable custodians of the fate of nations? Will their activities tend to world peace or to world war? Observe how two groups of them love one another when they fall out! Observe their callousness towards communities when they work together!

INTELLIGENCE

The Glasgow Herald

Intelligence is an inherited characteristic which grows year by year in childhood, and is fully developed about sixteen or seventeen, after which you may cultivate the mind through study and experience; but not by the measure of a brain cell can you increase your "intelligence." Many grown-ups, and some of them successful as the world counts success, if tested scientifically, would find that their "intelligence" was no more than that of their schoolboy son of twelve.

TAKING OUT A NO TRUMP

When your partner bids a no trump it is most important to visualize his hand. The initial no-trump only guarantees the holding of the minimum requirements for a no-trump. You also have the right to assume that the declarer is not blank in a suit and does not hold a worthless singleton. There is no guarantee, however, that the no-trump is without a worthless singleton.

You may also mirror the declarer's hand as not holding a sound major suit bid, as preference in bidding is given to a sound major rather than to a no trump.

There is no ruffing when the hand is played at no-trump. The highest cards take the tricks. If you hold high cards, evenly distributed, as four-three-three-three, it is usually unnecessary to make any declaration. When your hand fits in with your partner's no trump and your cards will help your partner make game, you should co-operate with him and pass.

If, however, your hand contains a blank suit or a singleton or worthless doubleton there is always present the danger that opponents may be so strong in that suit before your partner can obtain the lead. It is often found that the declarer is weak in the very suit in which you are short.

Some expert under certain conditions and when holding certain high cards declare a four-card suit, to take out a no-trump. Occasions may arise when it is advisable to take out in a four-card suit, but these occasions are so rare that they may be relegated to the experts.

As a general rule the average player ought not to be concerned with taking out a no-trump unless holding a suit of five or more cards.

WOMEN'S FRANCHISE
To the Editor—I have only this moment noticed a letter in The Colonist of Saturday challenging the accuracy of your correspondent, Mrs. White Birch, when she recalls that it was the Liberal Government that gave woman

JOTS FROM GEOGRAPHY

CAIRO, the capital of Egypt, and the largest town in Africa, is situated on the eastern bank of the Nile, 12 miles above the apex of the Delta. On the opposite bank of the river is the small town of Chirch, near which the three largest Egyptian Pyramids stand. To the south of Cairo is the ancient site of the Memphis.

The franchise here, it was just eleven years ago woman secured the franchise in B.C. That act of justice to over fifty per cent of our citizens was long overruled by the selfish interests of the movement in England frightened the Conservative Party into passing a referendum act, but the Liberal Party under Mr. Brewster nulled their colors to the mass and promised it outright. At the first opportunity, at their first session, they granted it, and also gave the right to women to sit in the Legislature.

Let those interested to find which of the parties have demonstrated real concern for the home life and the social and industrial welfare of the people, look to the fact that the Liberal Party in force affecting those interests, and in the question in respect of each: "Was that in force in 1916?" Overwhelmingly the answer is "No."

Let those dispersed, through party stigmata, to challenge the Government's record in these matters just be candid and face the facts. No government, at home or abroad, has, or ever had, so splendid a record of social policy and legislation as that of this Government now appealing for renewed support.

THE BUS BY-LAW

To the Editor:—Please publish the following open letter to Reeve Crouch and oblige.

J. S. CAMERON.

To Reeve Wm. Crouch:—There can be no harm in delaying the polling and calling for tenders, and if Messrs. Cameron and Tolmie tender, there will be at least three tenders in for the purchase of the franchise to be embodied in the new agreement.

I draw your attention to the publicity given the by-law in The Colonist on June 30 last. If you saw it, or knew of it until I got busy, and it would have slipped by, no doubt, to your entire satisfaction.

It was rather a tall order or demand you made of me to produce $50,000 cash in three hours, whereas by postponing the by-law there could be no rush so far as the ratepayers and taxpayers were concerned, and everyone would have a chance to tender. I propose to do things in my way, and not as Mr. Tolmie or your dictators.

J. S. CAMERON.

1409 Camosun Street.

NOT MR. POOLEY, OF COURSE

To the Editor:—Mr. Pooley says it is time for a change. Does he mean this to apply to his own constituency, which he has represented in the Legislature for sixteen years? Or does he mean it to apply only to Liberal constituencies? No other riding in the Province has been able to gaze upon the candidate of the Government with such contentment or listen to the speech of its member as Mr. Pooley. The longest any member on the Government side has sat in the House is twelve years—against Mr. Pooley's sixteen. Surely if the electors of Esquimalt can stand for Mr. Pooley for sixteen years, the electors of British Columbia should be able to stand the Government for at least that long. Incidentally, Mr. Pooley has been Premier of the Province for less than a year, and should be given a chance.

ESQUIMALT

ELECTION PROSPECTS

To the Editor:—Amid much speculation and conflicting forecasts as to the outcome of the present election, it may be well to analyze the situation. The standing of the last House after the election of 1924 was four Conservatives, seventeen Liberals, three Progressives, three Labor and one Independent. So far as the choice of the electors was concerned, there was practically no change in this standing when the House dissolved. Therefore in order to control the next House with its forty-eight members, the Conservatives must make a net gain of eight seats and the Government of one. This would mean only twenty-five seats against a possible Opposition combination of twenty-three. From the Government side must be deducted the Speaker's vote, leaving a majority of only one on the floor of the House.

It is quite evident that in running a race, the fellow who has eighty yards to go has a harder job to win than the one who has only ten to run ten yards, but that is the real task of the two parties in this campaign. The Government has the further advantage in that it appears better able to co-operate with Labor than the Conservatives (who are rightly or wrongly regarded as the friends of the privileged class). So far as co-operation in the present campaign is concerned, it is known that Liberals are supporting Labor candidates in Cowichan-Newcastle and Esquimalt, but not in a single instance has a Conservative stood aside to assist the Labor men. Labor support thus appears to be stronger for the Liberals than for the Conservatives throughout the Province.

The women's vote must also be considered. There is not one woman on any regular Conservative ticket; but one Liberal, one Progressive, one Labor and one in Esquimalt, thus giving them an opportunity to express themselves in vital centres. This, with the Government's record of legislation for women and children, should tend to win the sympathy of this important element.

Then, as to the business men. It is a trite but true saying that busy times people do not desire a change. Conditions in the Province just now are admittedly prosperous and business men are not likely to be disturbed by a situation that tends to their benefit. They know that the personal property tax has been abolished and hope for further reductions with the return of the railway lands and the settlement of the P.E. question. They know that the P.O.E. Railway imposes an annual drain of nearly three millions on this province. They know that negotiations for the transfer of the line are progressing. They will feel that

It would be unwise to change negotiators in the midst of a transaction, and doubly unwise to replace them with inexperienced men. They know that the transfer of the railway would at once relieve the Province of its present burden and obligations for future construction. In view of all these circumstances, business men may be expected to rally to the support of the Government.

Thus we find the labor, the women's and the business vote likely to favor the Government. The Government has the farmers whose goodwill has been won by tax reduction, road extension and marketing control, and how much is left for the Conservatives?

Another element that favors the Government is party solidarity. That there is disaffection among the Conservatives is shown by the fact that independent members are running in Victoria, Cowichan-Newcastle and North Okanagan, whilst there is no independent candidate in the field running against the party ticket.

So far as leadership goes, the Government can make the stronger appeal. The Conservatives have no experienced provincial leader. Mr. MacLean has had twelve years of administration, during which he has risen from a position of comparative obscurity to the leadership of the Government. He is surrounded by able and tried colleagues; whilst Dr. Tolmie's prospective ministers, as far as known, not one has had a day's experience in administrative affairs.

The British Columbia of New Westminster (organ of Senator Taylor and probably the most conservative newspaper in the Province) warned the Conservatives at the opening of the campaign: "It is not assumed, however, that there is going to be a landslide." Its purpose was to advise the Conservatives to take every precaution as they had a heavy task before them, and who, reviewing the circumstances mentioned, the attitude of the most numerous classes of the community, combined with a campaign free from turmoil and showing the indication of unhappiness, say that the task has grown lighter.

It must be evident to any impartial observer that such changes as may occur are far more likely to strengthen the hands of the administration than to shift the balance of power from the Government to the Opposition side.

ORPHANAGE TAG DAY SATURDAY

Annual Appeal on Behalf of Protestant Home To-morrow

The general public of Victoria will be approached by taggers to-morrow in the interest of the Protestant Orphan Home, an institution which for many years has proved a real home for children bereft of one or both of their parents.

The home is dependent entirely on voluntary subscriptions for its maintenance and it makes but two yearly appeals to the public for assistance, one on the annual tag day which is to be held to-morrow and one on the annual pound party when donations in kind are received from generous friends.

At present there are forty-two children in the home, and mothers and fathers of families who know how much it takes to feed little mouths and how quiet shoes and stockings and other clothes wear out will appreciate the work which the ladies' committee has in caring for this large family. They bespeak from their many kind friends and the public at large a generous response to the appeal on behalf of their little charges.

NOTED WRITER IN INTERESTING TALK

Robert Watson of Winnipeg Addressed Local Scribes

Robert Watson, president of the Winnipeg Branch Canadian Authors' Association, who is a visitor in the city, doing research work in the Provincial Archives, was the guest of honor and the principal speaker at the July meeting of the Victoria and Islands Branch Canadian Authors' Association in the Alexandra Club last evening.

The history of his novel "The Music Within," "Mr. and Peter," "Spotters of the Valley," "High Hazard," and several others, was given with rare flashes of humor and sound friendly advice to the writing profession.

Mr. Fraser, who has just returned from the convention of the Canadian Authors' Association at Calgary, gave a short resume of the many interesting features of the programme, and catalogued the people of Calgary for their hospitality and entertainment.

He showed some photographs of well-known writers attending the convention and of the ceremony conferring citizenship upon Dr. Charles G. D. Roberts, by the Sarcee Indians, under the title "Nah-keh-tie-se A-ke-tcha," writer-in-chief.

Miss Coleman of Vancouver, member of the Poetry Society, who was present at the meeting, announced that the paper on "Some Recent Aspects of Canadian Poetry," read by Miss K. Erncliffe, of Vancouver, at the Calgary convention, had been received with marked appreciation, and Miss Fraser has been requested to repeat it at the convention of the League of Western Writers to be held in Portland from August 9 to 11, at which Dr. Charles G. D. Roberts is to be one of the principal speakers.

LESS WORK MAKES MOIST PATIENCE IN HOT WEATHER

The minute the thermometer shoots upward adults expect to feel a reaction toward it. They don't feel it. They feel it if they don't eat or cold foods. They don't want to work and if they do it makes them cross. In fact in a lot of households any undue exhibition of temper is likely to be excused on the plea that the tempery one "can't fit to be lived with in hot weather."

Perhaps this is true if one tries to live under cold weather conditions. This, however, is not necessary.

First of all there is the housework which should be reduced to the point at which the least possible effort is needed to keep clean. In fact, the rugs and rollers in the parlor. Take out every single article that might need dusting. Take down the curtains so that every speck of breeze will do its full duty. In the kitchen, the bare room looks twice as cool as one cluttered with rugs, curtains and ornaments, and what a difference in the morning housework!

One doesn't leave the house to enjoy picnic luncheon. In the early morning when one feels fresh, prepare all the food for dinner, and clear the kitchen. Then in the evening place the dinner on the screened porch or out in the backyard. Use paper napkins and paper plates and have the foods cold and uncooked if possible. What could be nicer than a sandwich of chopped nuts or cottage cheese and tomatoes, and a salad of chopped raw carrots and celery, a pitcher of cold milk or buttermilk and some plain cookies? Who wouldn't like that better on a blistering night than a hot roast and hot vegetables and pudding?

Some persons keep on jogging along in the same path Winter and Summer, finding the old rut easier than cutting a new trail. There isn't any help for that type of person. She just keeps on slaving and taking a dismal sort of pleasure in being a martyr to her home and her children. But the sensible housewife is on the lookout for any ideas which will help her simplify her living so that she will have the time and rest which she keeps her sweet-tempered and able to be more considerate of her family.

If you wrap a piece of ice in a Blanket - it will melt too slowly to preserve your food! For the ice must be exposed and melt in order to keep the refrigerator sufficiently cool.

It's the same with soap! It must dissolve from the bar before it can do its work.

The hard, common kinds of soap take their own time about dissolving.

But Sunlight dissolves freely, so it isn't necessary to leave it in the water. In fact it's wasteful to do so.

Just swish the bar around a little and right away you have plenty of bubbly, lasting suds—even with hard water!

Sunlight, being all pure soap, not only dissolves quickly, but works faster and does not hurt either hands or finest fabrics.

Mrs. R. P. Butchart Entertained Aged Women Yesterday

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, following out a delightful custom established last year, entertained fifty inmates of the Aged Women's Home in their beautiful garden at "Brentwood" yesterday afternoon.

The elderly visitors made a tour of the garden, just now at the height of summer loveliness, and afterwards entertained at tea. Many of them recalled memories of last year's visit and Mrs. Butchart expressed the hope that they would make the visit an annual one, an invitation which was received with applause.

On the journey home H. E. Tanner of the Saanich Fruitgrowers' Association presented the party with two crates of raspberries, which were much enjoyed. Joseph North arranged the outing and accompanied the aged ladies and on their return to the home they presented him with a box of cigars as a token of appreciation. The buses in which the trip was made were kindly placed at the disposal of the party by the C. and C. Taxi Service Ltd. to whom the party expressed their grateful thanks.

son, were both laid, as you well know, before the Saanich Council at their meeting June 14. Both offers were read, considered and discussed and Mr. Matson's offer of $15,000 for the Lake Hill bus service, with a cash deposit of $12,500 as evidence of good faith, was accepted by the council, subject to a vote of the people.

Let us suppose you have forgotten the text of your offer. Will you give it to you, also the offer from Mr. Matson: "To pay you the sum of $15,000 for your equipment on the Lake Hill route and continue to operate such service upon schedule, provided we are given the sole and exclusive right for a period of ten (10) years, to operate motor buses within your municipality on Quadra Street, East Road, East Saanich Road, between the City of Victoria and the northern boundary of the municipality, on schedule to be agreed upon."

"EMPRESS TAXI AND SIGHT-SEEING CO., LTD."
"H. B. Olson, President."

Mr. Matson's offer was a letter of a few words:

"To purchase the Lake Hill bus line for $15,000."

Quite a difference in these offers, Mr. Olson. Is not so? No strings on one and a very long string on yours. Which would you have accepted, Mr. Olson. If you had been reeve and if the interests of the Saanich taxpayers was your first consideration? I knew which one the Saanich electors would have accepted, and I did the same.

After several meetings of the Saanich Council, we drew up a by-law to place before the Saanich electors giving a bus franchise to Mr. J. S. H. Matson. You, Mr. Olson, knew all about this and on the night the Saanich Council met, June 25, to give the by-law its first reading before going to the people, you appeared at the meeting with your solicitor.

While the by-law was being read, you or your solicitor, passed a bit of paper to one of the councillors, who passed it up to me. Fortunately, I have kept this bit of paper and I have it before me now; it is a scrap of paper torn out of a note book and written in pencil. This is what it says: "We will give you $20,000 franchise without equipment, payments guaranteed $1,000 a year." You will notice, Mr. Olson, there is no signature attached, and also this so-called offer is not an offer for a twenty-year licence to operate on the East Saanich Road as you state in your letter to The Daily Times—this was for the franchise, the by-law of which we were then considering. The Lake Hill bus service had been sold to Mr. Matson on June 14, and his cheque accepted, subject to the approval of the voters.

You ask—why was the offer not considered? You would be surprised, Mr. Olson, the discussion and consideration that was given this later on in the evening, and I am afraid none of it was very favorable to you.

To the ordinary man on the street, Mr. Olson, your offer at the first glance does not look too bad, and you are circulating quite a story about it, but there is the other side to this, and I am afraid you don't shine any too bright in it.

First, your offer was for the franchise (which we were then considering) not for a twenty-year licence to operate on the East Saanich Road, as you state in your letter to The Daily Times (see your offer).

Secondly, your offer of $20,000 looked very funny to us, as if interest at the rate of six per cent was calculated (what we pay our bank) it would come to $1,200 per year, yet you were going to pay the $20,000 at the rate of $1,000 per year. When would you pay the $20,000, as the longer your offer ran the more you would owe us, and you never could have paid it at the rate you specified, and for this you wished a monopoly over the whole of the municipality.

Thirdly, you knew that Mr. Matson had already gone about acquiring the bus service all over the municipality and had paid in cash to the former owners some $70,000 for the goodwill and equipment. You knew that the equipment he had bought was very poor and most of it would have to be scrapped, so that practically he had paid these men some $70,000 just for the goodwill of their routes. Yet you ask the Saanich Council to give you an exclusive franchise for twenty years to run over all the municipality, for what Mr. Matson had already paid some $70,000. You were willing to wipe Mr. Matson and his expenditure in cash of $70,000 entirely out. To the everlasting credit of the Saanich Council, we would not be a party to it.

Do you also remember, Mr. Olson, some twelve months ago, you wanted the council to give you running rights on the West Saanich Road, where another outfit was operating, and I said then I could not support it, as you would be putting this other firm out of business and acquiring the route without paying them one cent for it? Consider the treatment, Mr. Olson, which you are ready to mete out to your competitors with the treatment given you by the reeve.

A copy of the by-law agreement was sent to me on Saturday night, June 23. I looked it over and did not like one clause in it. It was the clause giving Mr. Matson the exclusive right in all Saanich. This meant your run on the East Saanich Road, too.

About 9 o'clock on Monday morning I called on Mr. Matson and his solicitor, Mr. Elliot, to meet me at our municipal solicitor's office. I told them I could not recommend the by-law unless, in the event of the by-law passing, Mr. Matson was ready to buy out your run on the East Saanich Road. Mr. Matson's reply was: "I am quite willing, Mr. Reeve, before the people pass the by-law, or after, to buy Mr. Olson out." Will you give me that in writing?" I asked. Then there our solicitor drew up a letter, which Mr. Matson signed, agreeing to buy you out at a fair value, and if you could not agree, by arbitration. It was put in an envelope, signed and sealed and addressed to myself, and I left the same to be placed in our solicitor's safe till I asked for it.

You, Mr. Olson, have operated in and through Saanich for some considerable time. When Mr. Matson made his first tentative proposal you appeared before the Saanich Council with Mr. Ray, apparently your legal representative, and Mr. Ray intimated to the Saanich Council that it was ridiculous to expect service on some of the routes specified. In other words, you apparently wanted the cream, but no skimped milk.

Now, Mr. Olson, I honestly and truthfully believe that you are mainly at the bottom of all this misleading propaganda that is going round the municipality. You did not mind a twenty-year franchise and monopoly if it was given to you, but because the Saanich Council have done what they believe to be in the best interest of the people and are supporting the giving of the franchise to another party, everything is wrong. I believe the people are going to pass the by-law, and my last word to you, Mr. Olson, is, even after it is passed, you are still going to get decent and fair treatment from the hands of the Reeve of Saanich, and I believe from all the members of the Saanich Council.

Yours faithfully,
WILLIAM CROUCH, Reeve.

Royal Oak, B.C., July 12, 1928.
Saanich Electors:
I'm so to bother you with all this letter writing and publicity, but what can be done when just as soon as you nail one misleading statement, out comes another? Read particularly Mr. Olson's two offers, you have them word for word, and then read this letter to the editor of The Daily Times. Compare these and draw your own conclusions and vote accordingly on Saturday.

ELECTORS OF SAANICH

VOTE FOR THE BY-LAW SATURDAY

The By-law Poll will open at 8 o'clock on Saturday morning and close at 8 o'clock on Saturday evening. Following are the polling booths for the different wards:

Ward One	Cedar Hill School
Ward Two	Tolmie School
Ward Three	Gordon Head School
Ward Four	Women's Institute Hall, Marigold
Ward Five	Royal Oak School
Ward Six	Temperance Hall, Keatings
Ward Seven	Tillicum School

For the guidance of those who are to decide whether or not they will grant to me a franchise to transport passengers within the boundaries of the Municipality, I wish to make clear several important points, which I positively guarantee:

1. I agree and bind myself to equip and operate first-class coaches upon present and newly organized runs as soon as it is humanly possible to do so.

2. All routes will be extended instead of allowing the coaches to stand at dead ends for ten, fifteen and twenty minutes. For example, I hope to extend the Gorge Line to cover Royal Bay beyond the Four-mile House, Obed Avenue, and possibly one or two additional points. The Red Bus or Burnside Line to Raper's Dairy and Eberts. The Douglas Street Line through Lake Road and back Glanford Avenue and possibly an additional section that is being considered. The Lake Hill Line to Chesterlea, in addition to Cloverdale Avenue and Saanich Road. These coaches will be kept moving and roads, however rough, will be covered with the idea of best serving the public, who in some cases walk from a quarter to a mile and a half after being dumped out at the coach terminus. This is delightful during the late Autumn and Winter, more especially if the patron has numerous parcels and a child or two to look after. This, I hope, will be a thing of the past.

3. Fares can not be increased unless by consent of your Reeve and Council.

4. FREIGHT: To those engaged in freighting I wish to say: That even were I so inclined, I could not in any way interfere with those engaged in carrying freight. They have the same rights that have been in existence since Saanich became a municipality.

If, on the other hand, the freighters so desire, I will at any time join with them in an organization to better the service and their operations as carriers, leaving the control of their company in their own hands; and if such a decision should be arrived at, my time will be at their disposal free of charge.

5. That Stage Depot again: I have repeatedly stated that the Broughton Street depot would not be an asset of the Vancouver Island Coach Lines. This I repeat and positively guarantee to be true; and I wish to make it clear that the Stage Depot will be incorporated as a separate private company, and will be leased to the Coach Line Company, which was the understanding from the beginning. To put an end to further misleading statements, I have asked my solicitors to give their legal opinion covering the subject, and I trust that this will satisfy the ratepayers.

"Victoria, B.C., July 13, 1928.

"J. S. H. Matson, Esq.,
"Publisher Colonist,
"Victoria, B.C.

"Dear Sir:—

"Section 8 of the Municipal Act reads as follows:

"8. The jurisdiction of every Council shall be confined to the municipality the Council represents, except where authority beyond the same is expressly conferred by Statute."

"There is no statutory provision giving the Saanich Council power to buy a motor stage station in the City of Victoria.

"Yours truly,

"ELLIOTT, MACLEAN & SHANDLEY."

6. If I do all the wrong things my rivals are endeavoring to make you believe, such as increase fares—school children and adults; carry on with all the old busses I can lay my hands upon; refuse to serve the people with anything better than they now have; do my best to sink the ratepayers so deeply in debt that the municipality will be in despair long after we have all passed away; the Broughton Street Stage Depot thrown into the wreck and coaches galore that you do not want, what a picture it makes. Surely the ratepayers do not take such statements seriously. I will not allow myself to believe that any sane, unbiased person can persuade himself or anyone else that the sole object of the Coach Line Company is to secure a franchise that is to ultimately destroy the object for which it is intended, by loading up the ratepayers with a liability that would increase taxes, retard progress and place you all in a worse condition in every way than you are at present. I feel certain that you do not even think of such a calamity.

7. My object is to better conditions from every angle; to create new and increased population, which will mean an increased number of taxpayers, which is so necessary in the municipality if it is to make progress such as we would welcome. Transportation is the only thing that will bring about such conditions. If I fall down on the job, I lose all the money I have invested, which to-day totals One Hundred and Sixty-seven Thousand, Seven Hundred and Fifty Dollars. My partner covers this sum, dollar for dollar; he too stands the loss with me. It will take this extra sum to fully equip the various runs with new, modern, comfortable coaches. This can not be delayed unless we are prepared to risk certain loss by not doing so. If we take this risk, we are not serving the public and our day is short. Service means the life of our organization. This we must and will give—at present fares, adults and school children, without any liability to you.

8. Mr. J. S. Cameron has not called upon Reeve Crouch to hand over the Fifty Thousand Dollars, according to the terms outlined hereunder:

LAST-MINUTE ATTEMPT TO BLOCK SAANICH BY-LAW ANSWERED BY REEVE

It seems evident that a desperate attempt is being made at the eleventh hour to defeat the Transportation By-law which goes before the Saanich electors on Saturday. As late as last night a card was broadcast to the ratepayers purporting to be signed by J. S. Cameron as follows:

"Saanich Municipality Transportation By-law

"I at no time stated I was still a member of the C. & C. Taxi Service Limited—far from it.

"I am out to defeat the present by-law—in that it is altogether too one-sided, and am prepared to tender at least one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00), for the franchise covering the whole of the municipality, subject to the approval of the then council; buying the municipal busses in addition, if the ratepayers of Wards One and Two so decide, when the new agreement is submitted; and my central garage at 824 Johnson Street will not be an asset in the company to be formed. It is immaterial to me whether Mr. Matson or Mr. Olson sell or stay so long as I hold the franchise.

"J. S. CAMERON.

"1419 Camosun Street, Victoria, B.C."

Mr. Cameron was previously connected with the firm of Cameron & Caldwell, but has not now any known interest in any transportation system, nor does he own any busses or coaches.

Upon referring to the Reeve of Saanich, he states that knowledge of this card has been brought to him, and he has dictated an answer to it as follows:

"J. S. Cameron, Esq., 1419 Camosun Street, Victoria, B.C.

"Sir—The card which you have to-night sent to the ratepayers of Saanich, has just been brought to my attention.

"Immediately I tried to get in touch with you at your home, but failed to do so. I, thereupon, called up the office of the Gray Line Transportation Co., asking if you were there and would speak to me. The person answering the telephone stated that they would ascertain if you were in, and, after waiting, I was told that you were not around at present, but that if I would leave my phone number you would call me up if you came in later on.

"You very well know that you have made no such offer as is contained in this card of yours.

"The reason I called you up was to make you the following offer:

"If you will bring an offer in writing, addressed to the council, for a franchise in the terms of By-law 408 now going before the people, this offer to be accompanied by a deposit of $50,000 in cash, as a guarantee of good faith by 12 noon on Friday, July 13, 1928, to be applied on account of the franchise price, the by-law will be withdrawn, and a meeting of the council called for Monday night to accept your offer, and have Mr. Matson's consent to this action.

"If you do not accept this the ratepayers must consider your action as a deliberate attempt to confuse them.

WILLIAM CROUCH,
"Reeve.

"Victoria, B.C., July 12, 1928."

9. If you feel that you can rely upon local men with local capital to further the development of your municipality, please do me the honor of so expressing your views at the poll on Saturday, July 14.

Yours truly,

J. S. H. MATSON

TALLYHO MAN DRAWS FINE

Sidney Sangster Penalized
For Standing Away From Vehicle

For standing more than six feet away from a tallyho while an attendant on the vehicle, Sidney Sangster was fined $10 in judgment given by Magistrate Jay in the City Police Court this morning. The case was heard on Tuesday.

In giving judgment, Magistrate Jay pointed out that according to the evidence, the accused was a considerable distance from his tallyho and was performing the duties for which he was employed—of selling tickets and conducting passengers to the vehicle. The case rested on the definition of the word "attendant" in the by-law, and his Honor thought this should be given a wide definition. The accused was as much an attendant as the driver or the announcer of the tallyho, he held.

Alexis Martin, who appeared for Sangster, suggested that as there was a point of law to be decided, the minimum penalty should be inflicted.

Two other charges of a similar nature faced by Sangster for offences which occurred on July 3 and 7 will be heard next Tuesday.

POWERFUL PLANE BRINGS PORTLAND MAN HERE FOR MEET

Victoria aviation fans yesterday saw at the airfield the exact duplicate of Lindbergh's famous "Spirit of St. Louis."

The plane, powered by a nine radial-cylinder, Wright Whirlwind motor of 220 horsepower, flew here, bringing V. L. Arnold of Portland, one of the officials of the Oregon Copper Company, who, by hiring a plane, was able to come here for a quick conference with a number of prominent British Columbia mining men and E. P. F. Roe, broker, and return home the same evening.

After the business session here, Mr. Arnold took Mr. Roe and some friends for a short trip over Victoria. He left at 6:30 o'clock on his return south.

The plane carried a pilot, four passengers and baggage. Its only difference from the "Spirit of St. Louis" is that Lindbergh had the passenger compartment of his machine converted into a large tank for carrying gasoline.

JOHNSON STREET BLAZE QUELLED

Serious Conflagration Averted
By Prompt Action of Fire-fighters

Prompt action on the part of the city fire department averted what might have been a serious conflagration when a blaze at the Canton Rooms, on Johnson Street, was extinguished in the early hours of this morning.

Three fire trucks answered the alarm at 1:45 a.m. from the corner of Johnson and Store Streets, and the fire-fighters found flames and sparks leaping high in the air from the rear of the building. A portion of the interior was then on fire.

Ten minutes sufficed to quell the blaze. The buildings in this neighborhood, it is pointed out, are old, and fire with a good hold would have done serious damage. It is thought the fire started in a rubbish pile at the rear of the building.

NO POLITICS IN B.C. PENSIONS

Officials of the Mothers' Pension Board to-day denied emphatically the statement of F. C. Elliott, president of the Victoria Conservative Association, that the administration of mothers' pensions is influenced by political considerations.

The board, it was stated, has no means of knowing the political affiliations of women who apply for pensions. The suggestion that the board might be influenced by a Liberal Party organization before they are accepted is absolutely false, officials said.

T. M. Miller, acting for F. R. Carlow, to-day accepted R. H. Pooley's libel writ against Mr. Carlow in the Supreme Court here.

MIRACLE TORO YANKEES

N.Y. Have Not Cinched Pennant But Athletics and Browns Falling Down

Cardinals Increase Lead in National By Impressive Win Over Giants

Figures don't lie and there's mathematical truth for the assertion that the New York Yankees have yet to clinch the American League pennant. But alleged contenders in that circuit are coming day by day to the realization that it will take a miracle to head off Babe Ruth and Company from their third appearance in the world series in three years.

The maddening part of the situation to the contenders lies in the fact that for a month the champions have done little better than break even, yet they still lead the procession by 10½ games.

The answer to that apparent paradox is that their closest competitors, the Philadelphia Athletics and the St. Louis Browns have done no better over the same period.

The figures on how the three leagues have fared since June 10 have an interesting story to tell. Tabulated, they show:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Yankees	19	15	.559
Athletics	20	16	.556
Browns	18	16	.529

INCREASED ADVANTAGE

Thus, although the Yankees have won only four more games than they have lost during this period they have increased their advantage by one percentage point over the second place Athletics, and thirty points over the Browns. If this sort of thing keeps up the Yanks can coast in to the pennant.

The Athletics lost a chance yesterday to cut deeply into the leaders' lead when they split even with the Chicago White Sox, while Detroit was varying out the Yanks at New York, 4-2.

Three runs in the ninth spelled victory for the Tigers.

Redfern's single scored Cissell, who had doubled with the run that gave the White Sox a 4-3 victory over the Athletics in the first game. Eddie Rommel being in good form in the second and gave the Athletics an even break on the day, 4-2.

The Browns bunched hits off McCarty in the sixth to defeat the Boston Red Sox 3 to 1. Crowder chalked up victory No. 1 against one defeat.

PITCHER'S BATTLE

Burns' single in the tenth sent the Washington Senators down to a 2-1 defeat at the hands of the Cleveland Indians in a pitcher's battle between George Uhle of the Indians and Braxton and Fred Marberry.

Over in the National League the St. Louis Cardinals increased their lead to 5½-inning game, halted by rain. Adair, pitcher, pitched a battle between George Uhle of the Indians and Braxton and Fred Marberry.

The Chicago Cubs took their third straight win over the Boston Braves, 4 to 1.

"Kid McCoy" Is Now Acting As Prison Fireman

San Quentin, Cal., July 13.—Norman Selby, better known as "Kid McCoy," a former prize fighter, and now the prison's one-man fire department, was out of the penitentiary for the first time since he was sentenced several years ago for the slaying of Teresa More.

He was sent out to extinguish a fire which threatened the home of Robert Leland, a prison guard.

PICK OF LOCAL FIGHTERS WILL APPEAR ON CARD

Albie Davis Matched Against Bal Ostrander of Seattle in Semi-windup

Pastor, Keist and Jumbo Davies All Appearing in Show To-morrow Night

Albie Davis, the clever local bantamweight boxer, has been selected by Joe Bayley, promoter, for the semi-windup position on the fine card of events which he is offering at the Tillicum quarter, Broad Street, to-morrow night. The local bantam, who has engaged in over twenty-five fights during the last three years, has been successful in winning them all, with the exception of one close decision which he dropped to a heavier and more experienced opponent from H.M.S. Colombo last year.

Davis, who comes of a well-known boxing family, has been groomed for the game from infancy, and he first donned boxing gloves in public when he was four and a half years of age. Experts who have witnessed the young fighter in action predict a wonderful future for him. He possesses a splendid physique, excellent foot work and arm action, and a good defense, but his weakness lies in his hand walling, which he throws instead of shooting straight from the shoulder.

IS STRONG OPPONENT

Bal Ostrander, who has been selected by Duff Miller to oppose the local boy, is a top-notch performer, and is reputed to have beaten such stars as Ray Woods, Gyp Marko, Danny Flores and a host of other good boys. Miller is of the impression that the Seattle boy will manage to make up the local fighter's string of victories.

The other preliminary bouts are of an all-star nature. Tim Keist, who is another promising local fighter, will be in action against the local fighter, who is a top-notch performer, and is reputed to have beaten such stars as Ray Woods, Gyp Marko, Danny Flores and a host of other good boys. Miller is of the impression that the Seattle boy will manage to make up the local fighter's string of victories.

FINE CURTAIN RAISER

The curtain raiser between Jumbo Davies and Jimmy Kean of Seattle should be a rip-snorter. These two boys met a couple of months ago on the local boxing stage, and the local boy won the fight in four rounds. These flyweights mixed it up in a wonderful manner, and had the fans on their toes all through the fight. The return bout should be as good if not better than their first encounter, and both boys are out to gain a clear cut decision to-morrow night.

Tommy Fielding, who is meeting Eval Henderson in the ten-round main event, completed his training last night and will not step into the ring until the ring to-morrow night. The local boy is in wonderful condition and figures that he is going to win the bout with a K.O.

There has been a big demand for tickets, and it looks as if the bouts will be witnessed by a capacity crowd.

Harrison Wins From Scott In Spectacular Game

Tacoma, July 13.—Bradshaw Harrison, San Francisco, playing for the Tacoma club, defeated a fellow club member, Wallace Scott, to clinch his advance toward his second straight men's singles championship in the Pacific Northwest tennis tournament here.

Stanley Almqvist and Sherman Lockwood, to Hie Harrison, are Californians, advanced to the semi-finals as did John Riso, San Francisco's one-armed star.

TILICUMS TO PLAY SIDNEY

Tillicums will journey to Sidney to-night to meet the millmen in a Commercial League baseball game, starting at 6:30 o'clock. Pete Campbell will pitch for the clubmen, while Wade Steele will work for the home club.

YOUNG CALIFORNIA SENSATION IN ACTION

IN FULL STRIDE GETTING INTO HIS STRIDE OFF WITH THE GUN

Los Angeles, Calif., July 13.—The world's fastest starter—such is the title now held by Frank Wykoff, eighteen-year-old sprinter from Glendale, a nearby suburb.

It is the right to this title that may enable young Wykoff to be one of the very few two-time winners at the Olympic games in Amsterdam this Summer.

In the final United States Olympic track and field trials held at Harvard Stadium, July 6, the schoolboy captured the 100-metre dash from the flashiest sprinter. It is nothing but perfect technique and tremendous driving power that enables him to do so.

The accompanying "movie strip" of three photographs show how the youth gets away. They also prove that there is no trick, just pure speed involved. But you will note that his stride is one to marvel at.

Wykoff is expected to continue his great speed at Amsterdam, this Summer. He is expected to get out of his holes with the same unbelievable speed.

Cinder path experts differ on the reason for his remarkable speed start. Some say he is just lucky in getting out of his holes at the start of a race and others attribute his get-away to a "rolling start" which gets him into action faster than his rivals. However, photographs of a recent race showed two of his rivals rising from their marks ahead of him.

Finds Out Love And Training Are Not Good Mixers

Toronto, July 13.—George Young, noted Toronto swimmer, winner of the Catalina marathon, some January, 1926, last night admitted he had learned the lesson that romance and love's young dream do not form part of the training that University athletes glory in. Consequently, he announced he would obey the training instruction of Teddy Oke, his millionaire sponsor, and Johnny Walker, his coach, in preparing himself for the swimming meet to be held here on September 8.

Oke last night stated he would again give Young his financial support.

The young woman who holds the swimmer's affections was present at a conference of Oke, Walker and Young, and admitted she was deeply attached to the young swimmer.

BOXERS READY FOR TRIALS

Keen Competition Expected in Canadian Olympic Contests at Montreal

Montreal, July 13.—With the arrival yesterday of some of the boxers from other parts of Canada for the Canadian Olympic boxing trials which commence at the Forum on Saturday night and continue Monday, some idea of the kind of men other provinces are sending here is revealed.

Among the Ontario contingent is Jackson, University of Toronto scrapper, son of Judge Jackson of Edmonton, former president of the Amateur Athletic Association of Canada. Jackson is regarded as a real contender for the 147-pound class. Others from Ontario include S. H. Hackett, 126-pounder, and Roy Smille, present 160-pound champion who is now fighting in the welterweight class.

Manitoba men to arrive yesterday included George Holden, undefeated bantamweight champion of the prairie provinces; Billy Dwyer, hard-hitting Irish-Canadian, 125-pounder; Frankie Battaglia, Italian-Canadian, 135 pounds; Johnny Wilson, 135 pounds and Andy O'Brien, 160 pounds.

Other out-of-town men will arrive to-day.

The champion weighed 165½ pounds when he entered the ring and he abandoned his daily hike to avoid taking off too much weight.

He is almost down to the weight he will carry when he enters the ring to defend his world title against Tom Heeney on July 26.

During to-day's workout, Tunney dropped five pounds which he speedily replaced by drinking three pints of milk while Lou Fink, his trainer, regarded as a real contender for the 147-pound class. Others from Ontario include S. H. Hackett, 126-pounder, and Roy Smille, present 160-pound champion who is now fighting in the welterweight class.

FINE RECEPTION FOR MRS. SMITH

Sooke Audience Welcomes Candidate; Hears Government's Record Applauded

Legislation Has Brought Much Prosperity to B.C.'s Unorganized Lands

Sooke, July 13.—A rousing reception was given Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, Liberal candidate for Esquimalt in the forthcoming election, when she spoke last night at Sooke. The hall was taxed to capacity.

In opening her address, Mrs. Smith declared British Columbia's record during the last ten or twelve years was one that only reflected credit on the Government for what it accomplished. She proposed to show her audience the progress that had been made, she said. In 1916, when there was a general election and the Government was overwhelmingly defeated, Mrs. Smith stated, there was in the treasury $81,000,000 and in addition there was a loan of nearly $5,000,000 against the Government. The Liberal Government, in order to place itself in a better position to get established so as to be able to borrow money at 7½ per cent.

found it necessary to increase taxation. "I am not complaining against a government that has a debt," declared Mrs. Smith. "I would rather see them have a debt and develop the country." On the platform recently opponents had been telling conflicting stories of the debt. British Columbia was in the best financial position in Canada, said Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Smith then told of the two kinds of debt, productive and non-productive, the latter bringing no returns to the Government, but rather being a liability for schools, hospitals and services to various institutions. In reference to the productive debt Mrs. Smith cited the Okanagan Irrigation Scheme, the Government "loaning money to a board that operated for that purpose. In a number of years the Okanagan people will have returned that money with interest, she said.

In dealing with the University project Mrs. Smith showed her audience the Government owned considerable lands surrounding the University and had opened up this area, putting in streets, sewers, etc. These lands are now up for sale and in due time will defray the whole cost of the University, it is believed.

As for the road programme, Mrs. Smith stated the critics and opponents did not tell about this.

British Columbia's sinking fund was $16,500,000, and because of this sinking fund the Government could go into the markets of the world and borrow money at a lower rate than any other province. The sinking fund of British Columbia was more than the combined sinking funds of the Provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario. Ontario, with a population of 2,250,000, only had a sinking fund of $2,500,000. Ontario paid 6 per cent while British Columbia could borrow at 4.40 per cent, Mrs. Smith showed.

With further reference to the financial position, Mrs. Smith quoted MacLean's Magazine (which could not be accused of Liberal tendencies) of a year ago in which they undertook to make a resume of the financial condition of Canada, beginning with the Federal Government and taking each province in turn. They stated that British Columbia was in the best financial position of any Province in the Dominion of Canada and British Columbia's borrowing power was greater than any province in Canada.

In an edition of The Vancouver Province there was an article complimenting the Oliver Government on its financial condition. Mrs. Smith made further reference to articles in The Montreal Star, in which they told of reduction in taxation of income and personal property and that Hon. J. D. MacLean was an able administrator.

Being in that splendid financial position, Mrs. Smith declared the Government came to the people with every assurance, having reduced taxation and having been able to pay off some of the indebtedness. "Following the war new industries were created, these same costing much money.

"Our opponents say," declared Mrs. Smith, "that the department of industries is a failure, although 80 per cent of that money has been returned to the Government."

Mrs. Smith stated as far as she personally was concerned, if that money was never returned she would not begrudge the men who served so that we might live in liberty.

An important item Mrs. Smith wished to impress on her audience was the fact that only one-half of one per cent of the country was municipalized in British Columbia. In these non-municipalized areas the Government spend the large amount of $7,500,000 a year. That amount of money had to be taken out of the revenues of the country and that revenue came from taxation. At the same time the Government had been able to reduce taxes on businesses, personal property and income, she went on.

Mrs. Smith stated that the women of the Province were using the franchise as a weapon so they could do away with the unfair laws of the country. Dealing at length with the benefits derived from equal guardianship of children, minimum wage for girls and women, and other acts of the same order, Mrs. Smith spoke.

In referring to the Mothers' Pension Act, the speaker told how Canon Hinchcliffe, a recent platform shed crocodile tears over that measure. It was true, said Mrs. Smith, no law was perfect. At the last session a committee was appointed to investigate Canon Hinchcliffe's charges regarding this act, and as a result certain amendments would be brought down at the next session, Mrs. Smith said.

In referring to recent accusations, Mrs. Smith introduced the bill for minimum wages for girls and women and said she had piloted it through the House. Mention was made of the Government taking over the responsibility of the Tranquille Sanatorium, how it had established the rural nursing service, a boon to many, more particularly those in isolated districts. An outline was given of the advantages enjoyed by children through the correspondence school courses and of the education given and industries taught at the day and night institutes.

At this juncture Mrs. Smith said to one or two in the audience who were asking questions as to the completion of the West Coast Road: "The MacLean Government is going back and is going to finish the job."

Mrs. Smith told of a recent meeting in West Vancouver when Reeve Vinson and Alderman Bridgman, both Conservatives, declared they would support the MacLean Government.

In conclusion Mrs. Smith said she had given facts and figures and appealed to the electors for their support. "I am going to be elected and I am a little bit greedy about the majority. Exercise your privilege and on the night of July 18 I will be Mary Ellen Smith, M.P. for Esquimalt."

W. T. Strath, Liberal candidate in the City of Victoria, supported Mrs. Smith on the platform, and congratulated the electors in having a candidate personally known to every man and woman in the Province and to the nation, and being honored by the Liberal women of Canada as the head of their national organization. Mr. Strath told the many advantages to be enjoyed on the completion of the West Coast Road.

Mrs. J. Pilgrim, president of the Esquimalt District Liberal Association, spoke on behalf of the candidate and referred to a recent editorial in The Vancouver Sun, denouncing Mr. Pooley for the insulting epithets applied by him to the Liberal candidate. She made a stirring appeal in support of Mrs. Smith.

In dealing with the question of the Esquimalt waterworks, Mr. Weight told his audience that Mr. Pooley had neglected his duties to the township of Esquimalt in that he misled the news, making him believe that he (Mr. Pooley) had given instructions for the amendments to be brought up, when at the same time he had counteracted his instructions to Mr. Davie of Cowichan-Newcastle, to only introduce the amendments when forced to bring them before the House. Mr. Weight had interviewed Mr. Pooley on this subject in the lobby of the House, he said.

Mr. Milne of Sooke was the chairman of the evening and he also paid tribute to the candidate.

Federal Minister, Speaking in Revelstoke, Urges Return of B. C. Liberal Administration

Revelstoke, B.C., July 13.—Hon. J. H. King, Federal Minister of Health, spoke here last night in the interests of Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works, who is Liberal candidate for the Legislature in Revelstoke.

Dr. King devoted his remarks principally to the negotiations now in progress between the Federal and Provincial Governments in respect to the Pacific Great Eastern Railway and the return of the Railway Lands. He advised the electors to beware of changing the negotiators at this time.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

THE VICTORIA DAILY TIMES, JULY 13, 1903

The thirtieth annual prize meeting of the British Columbia Rifle Association will be held at Clover Point Range next week, commencing on Monday. A large attendance is expected.

Yesterday was the Glorious Twelfth, but being Sunday, was observed quietly by Orangemen. The local order, the True Blues and members of the Sons and Daughters of England attended service in the Centennial Methodist Church in the morning.

A couple of alarms within a short time of each other occupied the fire department's attention on Sunday evening. The first, a telephone call, to the residence of R. L. Drury, Port Street, where a spark from the chimney set fire to the room. Little damage was done.

Victoria and vicinity—Weather forecast: Fresh to strong westerly winds, generally fair and cool.

The Victoria baseball team defeated a team from Everett, Washington, yesterday afternoon to the score of 9 runs to 7. Emerson pitched for the local team. The team lined up as follows: Everett—Pringle c, Donovan ss, K. Williams lf, Kane 3b, Mills lf, Lindberg 2b, S. Williams rf, Leat cf, Schack p. Victoria—Smith rf, Blith 3b, Chase lf, McConnell cf, Schwengers lf, Whalen c, Burnes cf, Hayes 2b, Emerson p.

It is very seldom a scientific person visits our city, but now we have one. Prof. Scott is not a professional fortune-teller, but a scientist pure and simple. This evening there will be introduced at the Douglas Gardens a complete change of programme for the entertainment of those who patronize the grounds.

A number of cheap excursions to the provincial mainland are contemplated by the management of the Victoria and Terminal Railway Company, which will enable Victorians to see the company's system, and at the same time enjoy the pleasure of a new route.

The excursion by the steamer City of Nanaimo, which was under the auspices of the Metropolitan Church choir, was fairly well patronized on Saturday afternoon.

Dr. Ernest Hall left last evening for Watcom, where to-night he will read a paper before the Watcom County Medical Society on "The Treatment of Pelvic Diseases in Inane People."

WHITNEY LETTER

(By Whitney, Brown & Co. Ltd.)

New York, July 13.—Don't sell. On Saturday of last week the following appeared here: With three or four more points added to the average price we may be called upon to consider the possibilities of a reaction worthy of that name. A repetition of the professional attempts to depress the market such as we had yesterday will under such conditions be a reaction worthy of that name.

The above is set, for this is not an attempt to claim credit of having called for the reaction which has been witnessed but simply to state that the reaction was rather clearly to be seen that the market has rallied enough from the June bottom to call for a reaction. It is likewise set forth again to show what has developed is not an abnormal but is one of the logical sequence in the development of a speculative situation. This reaction having come the next expectation is for a substantial rally which will probably be followed by a reaction. The development of another reaction which will be much more moderate than the one we have just passed through than a period of dullness and finally, with sufficient time allowed to correct the situation, a renewed advance in intrinsically sound issues.

In considering the loan statement which was released after the close yesterday, bear in mind that these figures do not include any of the reduction in item which was made in either Wednesday's market or in Thursday's market, in as much as stock exchange transactions of Wednesday or Thursday are not reflected until the next day. What will likely bear repetition is the statement which was made to you on two occasions in June, when Wall Street could see nothing but a big bear market, namely that it was honestly felt that you should dispose of stocks which had been recommended for purchase because they were going lower, you would be told so, but that since it would simply require patience on your part to get substantially more for them than you could get at that time, you should hold on to them.

For the same reason which prompted the statement then, you are again advised not to sell stocks which have been recommended for purchase but to use any further weakness to buy them. Comment: American Can is always our first choice. Int'l Combustion, despite the past market history, is in for an enormous development in the near future under the guidance of Fisher and First National interests. The mail order stocks are going higher. Steel and Coal. Fuel will likely advance.

Bond Trade Drops To Small Volume

New York, July 13.—Trading in the bond market to-day was of small volume. The money was dull and the rate unchanged and call money was easier. Traders apparently lacked interest in the market. Price movements were chiefly downward with railroad obligations especially pressed for sales.

Industrials were weak and neglected. Standard Oil of New Jersey reached a new year low at 102 1/2, while Standard Oil of New York 4 1/2 sagged to a level just above the minimum.

Dodge Brothers 8 1/2, the only other industrial to show more than nominal activity, dropped fractionally.

Wabash 5 1/2 and New York Central refunding 5 1/2 dropped to new 1928 lows. The former showing a loss of a point at noon. The St. Paul issues, B. and O. 5 1/2 and Standard National Railway 4 1/2 were weak.

OWLS

Man has woven the Owl into grim tales of death and terror. These shrieking night birds of prey have been made the subject of countless legends and fables. They are silent on the wing, they haunt old ruins, dark trees in deep woods and dim barns. The large head, cruel beak and wide eyes impress the timid. The bird sketched here is a Great Horned Owl.

Owls breed quickly and flock to places where field-mice and shrews are plentiful. A few of the larger owls sometimes eat poultry.

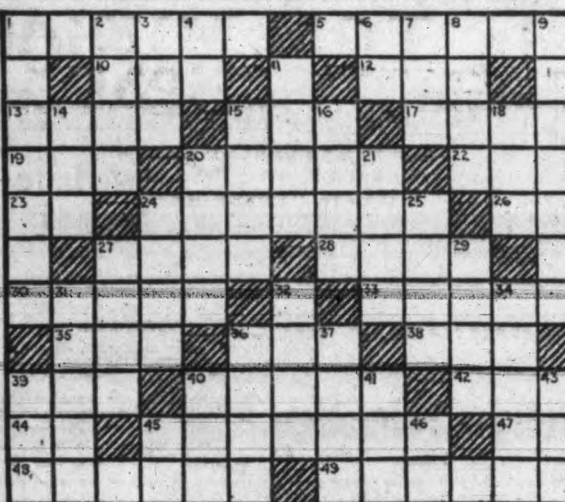

Owls fight humans when their nests are attacked. Farmers usually protect them because they eat beetles and slugs.

The Long-eared and Short-eared Owls are found in both Europe and America. They hunt mice vigorously. The common Barn Owl, a closely related species, can be found on both sides of the Equator. There are more than 200 species of Owls. The artist has sketched here the steady-eyed, fearsome-appearing Long-eared Owl.

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

To-morrow's Horoscope

SATURDAY, JULY 14, 1928

Again the stars seem to frown upon the earth, according to astrology which finds a malefic aspect strongly dominant.

Women are well directed to-day as long as they attend to their own affairs, but they should avoid men.

The family should benefit from this day, which makes for sympathy and co-operation.

Unusual storms may mark the next six weeks, it is foretold, and in certain states heavy losses are presaged.

Farmers are subject to rather depressing conditions while this away prevails, but they will benefit later, it is forecast.

Despite adverse aspects of the stars now and then prosperity in the United States is to be amazing, and supreme efficiency is to be attained in many lines of business.

After sundown association with men and women who have attained success should be especially fortunate, making for advantages and favors.

The evening should be a favorable time for entertaining persons in the public eye.

Persons whose birthdate it is may have the wrestle with stubborn circumstances in the coming year, but they have the promise of success and prosperity.

Children born on this day probably will be sedate and trustworthy. The subjects of this sign are usually dependable and they attain careers that assure contentment.

NEW PLANE RECORD
Paris, July 13.—After averaging more than 2,000 miles a day, Lieut. Lasalle and Adj. Duroyan landed at Le Bourget field last night, completing a five-day test of an army aeroplane. On successive days they flew from Paris to Oslo and return, to Madrid and return, to Warsaw and return, to Rome and return, and to Lisbon and return. The total mileage was slightly over 10,000.

CONSERVATIVES ANTICIPATE WIN

Four Speakers at St. Mary's
Hall Praise Dr. Tolmie and Attack Liberals

Conservative speakers at St. Mary's Hall last night were emphatic in their assertions that Dr. S. F. Tolmie and the Conservative Party of British Columbia would capture a majority of the seats in the next session of the legislature.

Jasper Beatty, the first candidate-speaker, denied the allegations of a "party split" in the Conservative ranks. He had, he said, never found more unanimity there. But the Liberal Party, he declared, "was ripped wide open." In this Mr. Beatty found Conservative strength.

Speaking of social legislation, Mr. Beatty alleged that it had been sponsored first by the Conservative Party, but that before they had had time to carry it out, the Liberal Government had the reins of power, followed in the path of their predecessors and made the social improvements law.

ONCE AN ASSET
Mr. Beatty further asserted that the P.G.E. had been termed a legacy from the Conservatives by the Liberal Party. He pleaded that it was actually a liquid asset at the time the Liberals took power. It was their administration, he declared, which had turned it into a burden.

Mr. Beatty claimed Canada was not so prosperous and wealthy as the United States because this country imported three times the material from her neighbor as her neighbor did from her. British Columbia raw material went to United States manufacturers and British Columbia men followed those materials to work in the mills and factories which utilized them. The export goods which Canada bought again were merely a finished article made by her own people on foreign soil from her own logs and pulpwood, he said.

HAS HIGH HOPES
Reginald Hayward, another Conservative candidate for Victoria, and the second speaker, predicted that he would beat Premier MacLean in this constituency by 5,000 votes. He had defeated the late Premier Oliver by 2,000, he said, and was convinced that he could increase this majority.

That his party would have thirty seats in the next Parliament was a Conservative estimate, Mr. Hayward said.

The Liberal Government, said Mr. Hayward, had presented an example of spendthrift rule. He found fault with the MacLean administration in various ways. In the matter of taxation, while the Government claimed to have reduced it, Mr. Hayward declared that he had a list of 100 instances where they had increased it. The spending record of the Government was high, he went on; the highest of any province in Canada. It stood at $34 per capita, and the next on the list of big spenders only spent $14 per capita. The Provincial debt under Liberal administration had increased an average of $7,000,000 annually, while under Conservative regime it had increased by only $600,000 annually, he declared.

LOST STRENGTH
Joshua Hinchcliffe declared that in attempting to win the Victoria electorate by a concentrated campaign here, the Liberal Party had sacrificed other constituencies. He had it from the late Hon. William Sloan that at this election the Liberals were to expend every ounce of their strength to win Victoria. By doing that very thing they had left themselves weak elsewhere, Mr. Hinchcliffe said.

Mr. Hinchcliffe criticized Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith for laying claim to achievements for herself and party in which she had no hand whatever. He drew attention to the alleged remarks of Mrs. Smith when she claimed that she said shop clerks wrote and thanked her for the work she did to bring British Columbia the weekly half-holiday. That act was passed through the Government in 1916, said Mr. Hinchcliffe, before Mrs. Smith had the franchise; much more, before she was in the Legislature.

Mr. Hinchcliffe said that he and his fellow candidates were pledged to stand behind Dr. Tolmie and "fight to the last ditch," and that meant to make good that promise. Dr. Tolmie could be depended upon if elected and put in power, to improve conditions in British Columbia, he concluded.

Lindley Grease, K.C., spoke in support of the city candidates on the Conservative ticket, and praised Dr. Tolmie highly as a man of principle and high integrity, foresight and ability. Gordon Cameron was chairman of the meeting.

AT THE THEATRES

PLAYS EMOTIONAL ROLE IN GREAT PLAYHOUSE FILM

Leslie Fenton plays a sympathetic emotional role in Fox films, "The Gateways of the Moon." The new Emory Theatre. He is a young engineer whose life is sacrificed by his ruthless chief engineer on the railroad project to prevent the younger man from reporting the mismanagement of the company to headquarters. Walter Pidgeon, Dolores Del Rio, Anders Randolf, Ted McNamara, Adolf Miller and Nobie Johnson complete the cast. John Griffith Wray directed.

STUDIO BUILDS LONDON SLUMS FOR BIG FILM

A feat in the art of architecture was accomplished at the Paramount studio in Hollywood, the new Emory Theatre starring picture, "The Street of Sin," which plays at the Dominion Theatre to-day.

A street block long copied from a section of Soho, the famous slum district of London, was reproduced in all details, interior and exterior.

Called "Harrowood," the street is paved with rough cobblestones. Ricketty, dilapidated lodging houses, pubs, shops and dwellings face each other across the narrow street. Gaping house tops lean their peaks perilously close together, as though drawn by mutual misery and squalor. There is an air of decay about the street, of poverty and sadness. It is well reproduced.

MIX IS LINE FOREMAN FOR EPIC PICTURE

A stirring drama of how a struggling crew of men led by one of extreme strength and courage complete a telegraph line in record time under the most adverse conditions is now being presented at the Columbia Theatre under the title of "Hello Cheyenne."

IRENE RICH IS NIGHT CLUB'S GAY HOSTESS

Irene Rich takes her audiences behind the scenes of New York night club life in "Dearie," her latest starring vehicle for Warner Bros., directed by Archie Mayo.

On the surface, the night club is all gaiety. Its entertainers and patrons seem to have not a care in the world. Joy and festivity reign supreme. Yet this is but one aspect of night club life.

In adapting Carolyn Wells' popular story to the screen, Anthony Goldsworthy endeavored to present the most realistic and dramatic episodes of the seamy and pleasant sides of this colorful phase of New York life.

Miss Rich is seen as a sheltered wife who is suddenly forced to shift for herself. Determining that her plight shall not interfere with her son's college career, she seeks support in the only profession in which she has had any experience, musical comedy.

"Dearie" is being shown to-day at the Variety Theatre.

THOUSANDS OF FIGHT FANS IN DENNY PICTURE

Four thousand extras were employed to fill in one of the large boxing arenas in Los Angeles during the filming of the fight scenes in "On Your Toes," Reginald Denny's new starring vehicle now at the Capitol Theatre this week.

It was the purpose of director Fred Newmeyer to make the fight for the world's heavyweight championship on the screen as realistic as possible, so he had to have a large audience watching the struggle between the two fighters, played by Denny and Frank Hagney. Newmeyer thought he would have to tell the large group of men, intermingled with a few women, just how a fight crowd should act. When the bout started, however, he did not have to shout directions to them as they became so interested in what was going on in the ring that their reactions became unconscious.

On the stage at the Capitol this week the vaudeville includes the "Three Naths," an acrobatic novelty, and features the smallest and youngest acrobat in the world, Ellen Kinsey, pretty danseuse, in a dainty dance offering; Paul Tietche, in song selections; Harold Bechtel, the singing M.C. and the Capitol Concert Orchestra.

BELASCO'S "THE DOVE," COMING TO DOMINION, STARS MISS TALMADGE

Norma Talmadge has, as Dolores Romero, in "The Dove," coming to the Dominion Theatre, on Monday in her third Belasco role. Of all the screen stars, Miss Talmadge has been selected by the "Great Master" in the Theatre—David Belasco—to play the emotional roles that he has created for the stage. Her first part was in "The Heart of Wema," her second "Kiki," and now, Dolores Romero in "The Dove."

Many touches not present in the original Willard Mack play, "The Dove," have been incorporated in the picture. Critics are pointing out this picture as an example of how much more can be done on the screen than on the stage with the same material.

"The Dove" is rich in splendid parts, rich in romance and rich in power. It has been said to strike the perfect balance between a colorful romance and a thrilling melodrama.

TELLS OF WAR IN AFRICAN WILDS

The transportation of two launches from Capetown to Lake Tanganyika by men of the British Navy in 1915, to smother the German threat, is the story of their stronghold in East Africa, an undertaking requiring the seamen to overcome, first of all, an almost impassable country, was the subject of an address delivered by Commander Spicer-Simson, R.N., D.S.O., before a large audience at the Memorial Hall here last night.

Roads over mountainous country and through forests, the construction of 152 bridges, and the constant strain of human endurance against the extreme climatic conditions, made the undertaking a colossal enterprise. Two steam tractors and 120 oxen were used in the great trek, and due to splendid diplomacy in handling the natives the problem of provision carrying was in a measure simplified.

On December 26 a German ship approached the British breakwater. The two launches steamed out to meet it, and Petty Officer Waterhouse of the Mini fired thirteen rounds, twelve of which struck the German vessel. She surrendered, and it was found, when she was boarded, that the engine-room officer was the only man left living aboard. The German vessel was converted into a British gunboat and named H.M.S. Pili.

Sir Richard Lake was chairman.

"If you love me—help me to live"

"Cause I'm so little. An' I can't fight flies.
The nasty things they get in the milk. An' they crawl all over the food.
An' Gee! I get hungry! An' I eat those things.
An' then I get dreadful sick to my stummick. An'
my head almos' burns up.
An' how dry my mouth is.
The doctor says I got a fever. An' that lots of little folks get sick from flies.
An' some of us don't get well altho we think it is dandy here and would like to stay.
So if you love us babies, why get busy and kill the flies."

THREE hundred thousand babies and little tots die every year. And more of these precious little folks loose their grip on life in summer than in winter. All of these deaths are not attributed to flies. It is significant however that in the warmer months infection is easier. Disease carrying insects, flies especially, are active. Flies transmit thirty different diseases. And defenseless little folks are the victims.

There is no alternative. Flies must be killed. Health authorities advocate the use of Fly-Tox. They know that Fly-Tox is a scientific insecticide. It was developed at Mellon Institute of Industrial Research by Rex Fellowship.

Dutiful mothers spray the whole house thoroughly with Fly-Tox. It is stainless, has a cleanly fragrance. A child may use it without danger. But touch any household insect with a spray of Fly-Tox. And it dies. For the health of the little folks, for cleanliness in kitchen and dining room get rid of the flies. Use Fly-Tox. Enjoy that new summer comfort—a house without flies or mosquitoes.
